

¹ While Magistrate Judge Corker did not specifically advise the parties that they had 14 days in which to object to the Report and Recommendation and that failure to do so would waive their right to appeal, the parties' right to do so is clearly set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(2). See also Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 148-51 (1985) (noting that "[i]t does not appear that Congress intended to require district court review of a magistrate's factual or legal conclusions, under a de novo or any other standard, when neither party objects to those findings"). In addition, Plaintiff's Motion was unopposed by the Defendant.

SO ORDERED this 20th day of October, 2017.
